Game which i don't recommend, you spend more time dying than playing it and it is a very short game.. Nice little basic 2D platformer.. Very poorly designed game;
No variety in level enemies, just reskin (weak flying, weak ground, back only ground, shooting totem)
Artificial difficulty, the only challenge the game has. (No UP attack meaning when you have to go up through Bats, just have to take it as slowly as possible)
Poor boss designs (single attack, no change ups)
Poor level design (3 leaps of faith in the first area alone, stop counting after that)
Levels up can be brought but only 2 exist, increase health total, or increase health.
NO SAVE FEATURE, so all those Increased health you get through the game, unless you are doing a single play through do not carry over.
(Full review to follow, just thought Id get this up)
